MILTON Keynes Council is paying a hotel up to £190,000 a year to put up homeless people because of the city’s housing crisis.

The stricken authority conceded to MK NEWS that it was paying the Hotel Different Drummer a maximum of £3,657 a week to give shelter to homeless people and families.

Now the 19-room Stony Stratford hotel says on its website that it is ‘fully booked’ for the rest of 2014.

The council says it is ‘a last resort’ to place them in B&B accommodation, but said that due to housing shortages it ‘sometimes had no choice’.

One source told this newspaper: “This is an incredible amount and the council is trying to brush this whole thing under the carpet.”

A council spokesman said: “If we have a duty to accommodate a homeless person and there is no settled housing immediately available, then we do have to use temporary accommodation.

“This includes as a last resort B&B-type hotel rooms. The hotel in question is local and has large en-suite rooms. We do not like using temporary accommodation, and in particular B&B, but due to housing shortages locally we sometimes have no choice.

“Our reliance on B&B is reducing but we are not complacent and have been working on a number of initiatives to help those in housing need to find somewhere to live, including a scheme to attract more private landlords to offer homes to families in need.”

Milton Keynes has been dogged for more than a year with its figure for homeless families. In December 2013 it had 38 families who had been placed in B&Bs for longer than the lawful six weeks – the most outside of London.

And in January the council agreed to buy 40 homes to ease the housing crisis.

Mrs Kewsani, the owner of the hotel, said: “I have been contacted by the council, who have said they want to buy a further two hotels. Mrs Kewsani had not responded to our questions at the time of going to press.

We also asked the council for a list of the hotels where homeless people were staying and how much it was costing but it was unable to provide the information by our deadline.

99p Store to move into old Co-op shop

THE former Co-op shop that has stood vacant for a number of years in central Bletchley finally has a tenant – The 99p Store.

The store, in Queensway, is expected to open in August and create 30 jobs.

“We are delighted to be opening in Bletchley,” said Hussein Lalani, co-founder of The 99p Store. “We have had great success with opening one of our stores in Milton Keynes in April at Elder Gate.

“The public has become rightly transfixed on value – and we are delighted to obliged.

“The days of the public paying three times over the odds for everyday basics like branded toothpaste, coffee and washing-up liquid are a thing of the past.”

Talk of what to do with the vacant building – described as an ‘eyesore’ by a number of local councillors and residents – has heated up recently.

MK NEWS revealed last month that Wetherspoons had been eyeing up the site. The possibility of the major pub chain moving in had attracted a lot of support (see letters on page 6).

And although it is expected that The 99p Store will not take up the whole premises, a Wetherspoons spokesman told the newspaper ‘the company is no longer looking at the site’.

Ann Clancy, a Conservative councillor in the Bletchley Park ward, said: “It is most important that this building is filled.

“I don’t think it is going to be taking up the whole building, so there will be space for others I believe. The people of Bletchley want to see Queensway looking better than its current state.”

According to The 99p Store more than two million Brits visit its shops every week.

A MOTHER about to leave home for the school run was shocked to find her car missing – and even more surprised when she found it down the road with half of it missing.

Rachel Lloyd, from Woolstone, had been concerned about the limited edition Vauxhall Corsa Black could be targeted by thieves, having seen a spate of warnings about the model being dismantled by groups.

And her worst fears were realised when she woke up last Monday to take her child to school and couldn’t see the car outside her home in Marshalls Lane.

She eventually discovered the vehicle – which is just 18 months old – 30 metres down the road with the front end almost entirely dismantled.

“I had seen some warnings that groups were targeting this car, there was one on Top Gear,” Rachel told MK NEWS.

“Normally keep the car around the back where you can’t see it, but my husband had just brought a new car so we had decided to put that one out of sight.

“My car looked like it had been in a smash, they took the wheels, bonnet, radiator, air conditioning and more.

“We’ve been told that the groups are targeting shopping centres where they pinpoint them and follow them home, then come back during the night to do this. Apparently it can take them just 15 minutes.”

The car was damaged between 10pm on Sunday June 15 and 8.30am the following morning. There has been a spate of similar incidents reported across the country, as groups target the high performance components with unerring precision and speed.

Now Rachel is keen to warn other owners to keep special watch, adding: "I just want other owners to be aware it could happen to them.”

Stony to bloom

VOLUNTEERS have been rushing around Stony Stratford to make sure the town is in perfect condition for the Britain in Bloom judges.

And the pressure is on as it is seeking victory in the Thames and Chilterns Small Town category for the fifth year running.

On Saturday, volunteers were on their knees removing weeds from gutters and washing street furniture.

On Monday pelargoniums were added to dazzle Calverton Road, while the tapestry planting was set out yesterday afternoon using sempervivum plants to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Britain in Bloom.

The judges will arrive in Stony on Wednesday, July 2.
The Kings stage spectacular show

NEARLY 50,000 music fans descended on The National Bowl to see rock group Kings of Leon stage a stunning performance.

The bowl audience was in fine voice as it belted along to KOL classics such as Use Somebody, Four Kicks and Superstar on Sunday.

Support came from The Last Internationale, Twin Atlantic and Haim, but the amphitheatre was at its best when the crowd lit up phones during KOL’s atmospheric Cold Desert.

The band, made up of the Followill family, closed Sunday’s show with number one single Sex on Fire.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It’s been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it’s all about service. ‘Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it’s not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn’t focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn’t expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.’

Cloudy2Clear’s service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Luton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. ‘The truth is that it’s not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I’ve done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.’

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he’ll be happy to help!

Student stabbed near school

A STUDENT was stabbed as he made his way into school to take an exam.

Police were called to Phoenix Way in Leadenhall at 12.30pm on Thursday after the St Paul’s Catholic School student was assaulted on a nearby roadway.

He was taken to hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Two people arrested following the incident have now been released on police bail.

Man found dead in street

A MAN in his 30s was found dead on a city centre street.

Police arrived at North Sixth Street at 3.30am on Monday where they discovered the body of a man in the vicinity of the YMCA.

The death is being treated as unexplained and officers are continuing to keep an ‘open mind’. A 37-year-old woman was arrested on suspicion of supplying Class A drugs and has been bailed until August 18.
What about wardens?

I READ with interest your article regarding the safety of prisoners at Woodhill Prison due to staffing cuts (‘Staff woes at prison’, MK NEWS, June 11).

Having a close relative working there it beggars belief that the safety of prisoners is, it appears, a higher priority than the safety and health of the wardens. The reduction of wardens leaving, during meal times, one member of staff to maintain order, while looking after very dangerous criminals, is itself criminal.

Inmates’ human rights seem to be the lower priority consideration of anyone else secondary.

It is not in the public interest for the reduction in staff to continue. Four officers reduced to two on a wing smacks of stupidity by supposedly intelligent people and it is not them who have to take the brunt of the trouble when it occurs.

While the governor, David Huston, can make these comments, he does not understand how the staff have to put up with ever increasing violence. It is no wonder morale is extremely low and many staff want to get out.

Speaking to my relative, who is seriously thinking of leaving, it shows how low we have sunk in the reduction of public sector staff.

Name and address supplied

Calling for BT answers

I BOUGHT a property in Walton Grange in August 2012 and I am enormously dissatisfied at the lack of internet connection even further to the announcement from BT to delay installing a functional internet connection until even further to summer 2015 (‘Anger at delay in BT connection’, MK NEWS, June 9).

I ‘registered interest’ on the BT website in July 2012 and in June 2014 I still do not have Internet. This is ridiculous and causes detriment to both my professional and personal life, as well as substantial financial loss.

My grievance concerning this issue can be itemised as followed:

- Due to lack of internet I have to travel to a relative’s house or a public place with provided WiFi and pay for office space to download documents that are vital for my work life and general life administration.
- I am employed and cannot operate the infrastructure of my business from my home as there is no access to internet.
- My mobile phone bill is excessive due to my reliance on mobile internet as my property that I bought in August 2012 still does not have the infrastructure to receive internet in June 2014.
- I am a art psychotherapist and am legally required to receive supervision. Often these vital meetings need to occur via Skype. I have not been able to facilitate these meetings from my home and have a financial liability for providing an alternative confidential space to receive these Skype meetings.
- I am a landlady and rent out a room in my property. The lack of internet means my property is not appealing to prospective lodgers and this has significant financial implications.
- I vehemently protest the delay of BT installing fibre optic internet to this area after previously announcing it would provide this in summer 2014. Does BT sincerely expect me to live and work at my property without a functional internet connection for three years?
- I demand answers as to why there is a further delay to providing internet to those living in Walton Grange.

Driving forward change

WE ARE delighted that one of the councillors most responsible for introducing the deeply flawed ‘City Street’ concept is backing our moves to get those roads fixed (‘Councillor gets hump over road’, MK NEWS, June 11).

Curiously, he was nowhere to be seen when Conservative councillors arranged for Milton Keynes Council to do this review, just as his colleagues were nowhere to be seen when the Conservatives arranged for the Number 17 bus service to be upgraded. But once the decision was taken, they suddenly issue press releases, ‘calling for something that has been agreed!’

We arranged for a full review of the design and operation of all the City Streets (Countess Way, Fen Street) and surrounding roads most affected by them, like Newport Road.

We also arranged for the council to produce interim proposals, as soon as possible, for some ‘quick wins’ to improve the horrible noise of lorries ‘crashing’ over the experimental speed humps from 7am mornings.

Conservative councillors Catriona Morris and John Bint

Brave: Michael Osborne, 53, from Olney who stopped to help after a tumble dryer caught fire in Enzo’s Fish Bar

A RUNNER did not hesitate to help when he came across a fire in a fish and chip shop.

Michael Osborne, 53, from Olney, was just coming back from his morning run on Monday when he saw a distressed man outside Enzo’s Fish Bar in the High Street. The tumble dryer in the shop’s kitchen had caught fire and the partially sighted man – a friend of the owner – was unable to use the fire extinguisher so Mr Osborne rushed in and used it to tackle the flames.

“I got the fire extinguisher going and put the flames out,” said Mr Osborne. “I went out to get some fresh air and when I went back in the flames had reignited.

“I didn’t know what was going to happen and I was worried something was going to explode.”

Mr Osborne contended the fire for at least five minutes before 13 firefighters from Newport Pagnell, Great Holm and Broughton arrived about 8am.

A spokesperson for Bucks Fire and Rescue Service said: “We never encourage people to take this risk but it helped bring the fire under control.”

Mr Osborne suffered from smoke inhalation and received oxygen from paramedics at the scene.

The shop’s owner, Vargas Nahulan, 57, has thanked Mr Osborne and offered his family a free meal.

The blaze has led to calls from the fire service for more people in Olney to become retained firefighters.

The spokesperson added: “Not all stations can produce a crew 24/7/365. Although Olney has a long tradition of high availability levels, we are constantly recruiting here.”

Arena talks are grinding to halt

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

TALKS between key stakeholders in the National Badminton Arena scheme are grinding to halt.

Seven months on from what looked to be a done deal, nothing has progressed and doubts have now been raised about the viability of the scheme – which would see a new £20m arena built at the National Bowl site.

And now the chief of Badminton England, Adrian Christy, has refused to rule out the Leisure Plaza as a possible new destination.

The arena is dependent on The Parks Trust giving up its land interest at Loughton Lodge, which would then be developed to fund the project.

A deal had been struck to transfer the land to Milton Keynes Council in November in exchange for the lease of Barbarian Field.

But seven months on and that deal has still yet to be signed off. And the delays are frustrating Mr Christy.

He told MK NEWS: “I wish I knew why discussions have seemed to stop. We need about £30m from the land valuation, anything less than that full market value means we downsize and there’s a question mark.

“We’re not ruling out the Leisure Plaza, but our focus is on the bowl. We now need The Parks Trust to come to an agreement for the value of that land.”

The trust’s chief executive, David Foster, said: “If we give up this land we need something back for it. The issue is does Badminton England have enough in the pot?”

Data looks at hospital safety

NEW data published by the Government yesterday allows the public to compare how their hospital is rated on key safety measures.

Milton Keynes Hospital was rated ‘poor’ for infection control and cleanliness and ‘poor’ in the last report by the Care Quality Commission (CQC), but got two ‘okays’ and two ‘goods’ in other categories. A hospital spokesman said: “Some of the information, including the CQC, does not reflect our current position.” For more see www.mkweb.co.uk

Permit figures are revealed

A FREEDOM of Information request has revealed that Milton Keynes Council raised £1.37 million from parking permits in the 2012/13 financial year.

The request, by car sales website Trusted Dealers, also details how the cost of a full time employee season parking permit is £30 a month, though parking permits are free for residents in the city centre.

The council said in its response that ‘all income revenue is spent on maintaining borough car parks and highways’.
Passionate about parks

We look after a fantastic network of parks, lakes, woodland and landscapes across Milton Keynes – over 5,000 acres in all.

As a self-financing charity our work is all funded through our commercial property, investments and enterprises on our parkland.

The wonder of wildlife on your doorstep

Butterflies, great crested newts, noctule bats and badgers thrive in our parks and green spaces. Kingfishers, Daubenton’s bats and the occasional otter can also be seen in and around our waterways.

We’re privileged to care for a rich variety of animal, insect and plant life and we work extremely hard to encourage wildlife to flourish within our parks; in some places we are creating new habitats, such as the Floodplain Nature Reserve at Wolverton. In other areas the focus is on conserving and enhancing what is already there.

With ancient woodlands, pastures and hay meadows rivers and streams, ponds and lakes to choose from you can experience wildlife minutes from your doorstep. For the best places to spot wildlife visit www.theparkstrust.com.

Making a splash at Willen Lake

We’ve taken back control of our busiest and most popular park, Willen Lake, so that we can develop plans for future investment in leisure activities and facilities.

In particular we want to provide some year round attractions, perhaps including indoor children’s play, more quality food and drink choices, better watersports facilities, and improvements to the lake frontage.

Men cleared of teen shootings

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

TWO men have been cleared of the murder of two teenagers in the city.
Ahmed Ahmed, 20, from Milton Keynes, and Brahim Hajji, a 26-year-old Dutch national, were acquitted of the murders of the Somali youths during an argument over drugs three years ago. Mohammed Abdi Farah, 19, and Amin Ahmed Ismail, 18, were each shot in the head in what the prosecution described as an ‘execution’ in Fishermead.

The brutal murders took place on the night of May 26, 2011 in an alleyway off Fishermead Boulevard, which was a popular spot for local youths to gather.

A lengthy trial at Luton Crown Court had heard the prosecution outline how Mr Hajji had arrived in the UK two days before the murders and that he had returned to his home country four days later.

Mr Ahmed had initially been arrested in connection with the murders in June 2011 but, with a lack of evidence at the time, a decision was taken in July of that year not to charge him.

Detective Chief Inspector Gill Wootten, of Thames Valley Police, said it was ‘in the interests of justice’ that both men had been brought before the court and for the family to hear from them.

The acquittals came after two other men in their early 20s were convicted of the murders in January 2013.

Fuad Awale, said to have been the man who pulled the trigger, was sentenced to 38 years behind bars and his accomplice, Sharmake Abdulkadir, was jailed for 32 years.

Yesterday, Abdulkadir lost his bid to clear his name at London’s Appeal Court.

It was Happy Days for reporter Scott Scott Kirk following his appearance on stage last Wednesday. He had a walk-on part as an ‘announcer’ in Happy Days: A New Musical – and even had his own dressing room. He said: “It was a fascinating experience being backstage. I was nervous, but was buzzing with excitement afterwards!”

A SUPERMARKET giant’s plans to move into a town have been met with a mixed reaction.

Sainsbury’s wants to build a 20,000sq ft supermarket and petrol station next to the roundabout in Lavendon Road in Olney, which would create 160 jobs.

David Lazenby, Sainsbury’s town planning manager, said there is a demand for a store in the town, saying 73 per cent of residents shop outside Olney.

Paul Bennett, owner of butchers T A Bennett and Sons in High Street, doesn’t think there is a need for the supermarket.

“I’m not going to lose sleep over it, but I just don’t think the town needs it,” he said.

Residents have taken to Facebook to voice their opinions, with one saying: “I can see this sucking the life-blood out of the town.”

But Olney town mayor Stephen Clark was open to the idea.

He said: “I don’t have a problem as long as it doesn’t affect the trade of people already in Olney.”

A public consultation on the plans will take place on Friday, July 4 from 2-7pm and Saturday, July 5 between 10am and 2pm.

The Olney Chamber of Trade added it was pleased Sainsbury’s was consulting with residents on the plan.

A HEADTEACHER has said that bullying on social networking sites is the ‘bane of our lives’.

The comments come from John O’Donnell, the headteacher at The Radcliffe School in Wolverton.

Research released in October last year by national anti-bullying charity Ditch the Label revealed 69 per cent of young people have been victims of cyberbullying.

And it’s a problem the school admits is a growing one that it is desperate to control.

Mr O’Donnell told MK NEWS: “Social media is the bane of our lives at the moment and is one of the problems we confront.

“There are lots of routes we are trying to stop social media bullying, as well as including it in our school policy. We have a clear mobile phone policy that is put in all students’ planners.

“Mobile phones must be switched off to not interrupt lessons, or be used inappropriately.

“The full policy available in student’s planners was decided by students not teachers.”

Lauren Huish, 13, is a pupil at The Radcliffe School and has recently been subjected to online abuse.

She said: “There were about four people who bullied me online. I didn’t really want to go into school because of it.”

Lauren’s mother and stepfather, Jo and Paul Rohan, say they keep a close eye on Lauren’s Facebook account.

Jo added: “I think there are a lot more children who are being bullied online than people probably realise.”

Research that once took years now happens in hours.

Using Microsoft Azure and HDInsight, scientists and engineers at Virginia Tech harness supercomputing power to analyse vast amounts of DNA sequencing information and help deliver lifesaving treatments. Now the next big breakthrough might not be found in a test tube, but in big data.

This cloud makes data make a difference. This is the Microsoft Cloud.
The organiser of Winter Wonderland Milton Keynes still owes more than £3,000 to businesses – six months after the event had to be cancelled.

Lorenzo Franco was forced to close the event, held in Campbell Park in December, after just one day following thousands of complaints from visitors on social networking site Facebook.

Mr Franco, who owns T&L Caterers Ltd in Bedford, told MK NEWS shortly afterwards that he would issue refunds. However, D&D Marquees in Northampton, are still owed £3,000.

Owner Andrew Darlington said: “Debt collectors have contacted Mr Franco but have had no response and I might take him to court. His business should go into liquidation to pay others.”

Any Occasion, based in Sharnbrook, is still owed more than £6,000, while sweet specialist The Lollipop Girls, in Caddington, ordered extra stock for the event that it has been unable to sell.

This has meant it has not been able to recoup the money it has spent and has almost had to close. Residents also continue to contact MK NEWS asking for help with their refunds.

An investigation by Trading Standards at Milton Keynes Council is due to finish at the end of July. MK NEWS tried to contact Mr Franco, but he was unavailable for comment.

Pupils being urged to give rugby a try

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

PUPILS have the chance to become an ambassador for the Rugby World Cup 2015 following the launch of a new programme yesterday.
The School Rugby Ambassador initiative invites 14 to 18-year-olds to organise events and encourage people to play the sport.

Fourteen secondary schools that are members of the Youth Sport Trust were selected in or near host cities for the tournament to encourage other schools to become involved, with the aim of forming a network of rugby ambassadors for each area.
Shenley Brook End School was chosen in Milton Keynes for the programme, set up by the trust and Rugby Football Union. The scheme is now open to all secondary schools.

Councillor Hannah O’Neill, deputy leader of Milton Keynes Council, said: ‘Rugby World Cup 2015 is a fantastic opportunity to see one of the world’s largest sporting events on our doorstep. The School Rugby Ambassador programme gives students the chance to really feel part of it.’

Schools can register their interest by visiting www.youthsporttrust.org and clicking ‘how we can help.’
DECISIONS on controversial planning applications are expected to be made by planning chiefs tomorrow night.

The expansion of Two Mile Ash School is on the agenda for the meeting of Milton Keynes Council’s development control committee. The proposal includes 14 classrooms and a four-court badminton hall and MK NEWS has previously reported on residents’ concerns over how the expansion may add to parking problems near the school.

The planned expansion of Oakgrove School, which includes 17 new classrooms, 38 extra car parking spaces, a dining room and ancillary accommodation, is also up for discussion at the meeting.

Frost’s Landscape Construction’s plans to build 53 houses in Wain Close, Wavendon, are also due to be looked at. Campaigner Nick Luke has said giving them the go-ahead could open the floodgates for others to build houses in MK’s countryside.

Councillor Andrew Geary, chairman of the committee, said: “These are the sort of applications that affect people’s day to day lives.”

The meeting will be held at the Civic Offices at 7pm.

Pink Punters director Frank McMahon said he hoped the art would become ‘a symbol of freedom’.

The number of people with sexually transmitted infections (STIs) in the city is on the rise, MK NEWS can reveal.

The figure for those with syphilis trebled from five to 15 between 2012 and 2013 and the number of chlamydia and gonorrhoea sufferers also went up.

“Any rise in the number of STIs is always concerning,” said Maxine Taffetani, head of Milton Keynes operations at Brook, which provides sexual health services and advice to people aged under 25 in MK. “We always make sure that STI numbers are at the top of our priorities.”

She added there needs to be greater awareness about STIs and if people are concerned they should contact the group.

It wasn’t all bad news as the number of people with warts and herpes has fallen, according to the figures released by Public Health England (PHE).

Dr Catherine Lowndes, consultant scientist at PHE’s STI surveillance team, said: “Sustained efforts to encourage people to regularly get checked for STIs means we are now finding and treating more infections – which is good news. Nevertheless this data shows too many people are still getting STIs each year, especially young adults and gay men.”

To contact Brook call 0808 8021234.

MK LIGHTNINGING players past and present will be cycling from London to Paris to raise money for Willen Hospice. The 10-strong team want to raise at least £2,000 for the hospice.

“We felt they needed the money and they’re a local charity,” said forward Leigh Jamieson. To donate, visit www.justgiving.com/blazingsaddlesMK.

An HGV ban on ‘noisy’ road driven through

Looking to the future: How the Oak Tree Centre will look

Oak Tree Centre gets go-ahead

A PROPOSED community centre was given the unanimous backing of councillors who granted it planning permission on Thursday. The Oak Tree Centre, which will be next to Shenley Brook End School, will provide a 50 seat café, meeting rooms, offices and prayer room. Project manager Jim Hammett, of Shenley Christian Fellowship, said, three quarters of the £1.4million needed to build the centre has been raised.

By James Averill

An HGV ban on ‘noisy’ road driven through.

By Mick Legg, the new cabinet member for highways at Milton Keynes Council, contractors are using the road to access their site and the ban has been brought forward to prevent them from using it. Mick Legg has introduced measures that should negate this. He said: “We are bringing forward a temporary traffic regulation order for July 1 which will ban heavy goods vehicles using Countess Way. Contractors are using the road to access the main grid network and with works beginning soon on the Kingston roundabout we didn’t want workers on that to start using it as well.”

A review into the speed bumps, which have a big enough gap for drivers to weave between them, will take place in August.

Sam Crooks was one of the councillors who had raised concerns. He said: “I’m really grateful to Mick for having a look at these problems.”

Right to Request Flexible Working - Extension

On 30 June 2014 the Flexible Working Regulations will be amended. Here’s a preview of the changes:

INTRODUCTION

Changes that will extend the right to request flexible working have been scheduled after the Children and Families Act was passed in Parliament in March. These changes are due to come into force from 30 June 2014.

This will mean that the right to request flexible working will be extended to cover all employees after 26 weeks’ service, rather than only those with children under the age of 17.

The changes also remove the current statutory procedure for considering requests. Instead, employers will have a duty to consider all requests in a reasonable manner.

The legislation does not give employees the right to work flexibly as employers will have the option to refuse requests on business grounds.

BENEFITS

There are several proven benefits to introducing more flexibility into your organisation, including:

- Retention of skills and experience. Research shows that the lack of flexibility is a key reason why women leave organisations. Clients tell us they’d rather retain a high performing employee on fewer hours than lose them and have to recruit a replacement.
- Employee satisfaction. A flexible working week allows people to balance their commitments and increases their job satisfaction as well as improving their loyalty and commitment.
- Workforce flexibility. Flexible resources enables an organisation to affordably and quickly flex capacity during busy times as well as handle extended working days, important when serving international markets.

Look who’s back: Bradley Walsh will return to MK Theatre to play Smee in Peter Pan. He will star alongside dance act Flawless and Olivier award-winner David Bedella.

YOU asked for him and Milton Keynes Theatre duly obliged as, seven years after his last appearance, popular pantos tar Bradley Walsh is back. He will return in Peter Pan after smashing box office records in Cinderella (2006) and Aladdin (2007) after you voted for him in our poll at www.mkweb.co.uk.

Leading an all-star cast he will play Smee, Hook’s hapless first mate. Bradley said: “I can’t wait to be back at Milton Keynes Theatre. “My happiest memories of pantomiming met here and I have been dying to get back but my schedule over the last seven years hasn’t allowed me.”

Joining Bradley will be street dance sensations Flawless as a group of pop-locking, hip-hopping pirates, while Olivier award-winner David Bedella will play Hook.

The panto will run from December 5 to January 11. For tickets visit www.atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes or call 0844 871 7652. And don’t forget to use the hashtags #Bradleysback and #mkpeterpan and @MKTheatre on Twitter.

Meanwhile, Rock of Ages comes to Milton Keynes Theatre from August 18-23. To kick-start the debauchery head down to Middleton Hall at thecentre:mk on July 5 between 11am and noon for a performance by the cast. An air guitar competition will also be held with the chance to win tickets to the show.

HRH the Duchess of Cambridge followed in the footsteps of her grandmother by visiting Bletchley Park.

The future Queen was shown around by Sir John Scarlett and lain Standen, president and CEO respectively of the Bletchley Park Trust, last Wednesday.

Kate’s grandmother, Valerie Glassborow, worked at the Government Code and Cypher School’s top secret headquarters at the park during the Second World War. Miss Glassborow worked in Hut Six alongside her twin sister Mary. And one veteran who worked alongside them was Lady Marion Body, 90, who Kate sat down with for a personal chat.

Lady Body said: “There used to be five of us on duty so I worked quite a lot with them at the same table. “Because it was boring we got on quite well! Kate told me she knew her grandmother worked here but didn’t know what she did.

She was interested in what Valerie did and she was clearly very fond of her.

“She’s got the same hair colouring as her grandmother and looked lovely. She always does.”

MK NEWS was one of the few media outlets granted the privilege of following Kate throughout her tour – which marked the completion of the £8million year-long restoration work through Heritage Lottery Funding.

Looking resplendent in a cream top and blue skirt, she was introduced to members of the trust and then shown around the Cyber Security Exhibition in Block C. Here she attempted several interactive games, including one where she put on head-phones and tried to intercept a message.

She was helped by Bletchley Park’s Steve Lumby and upon intercepting her message the Duchess quipped: “Brilliant. It took me quite a long time!”

The royal also met several veterans, including Lady Anne Jaffray. Kate told her: “The more I can learn the better. That is what is so wonderful, all the generations can now learn about the work you ladies did when they come here.”

Before leaving she mingled with visitors and helped plant a tree outside the mansion.

On departure she was presented with flowers and a teddy bear by Georgina Reynolds.

Georgia, nine, from Walnut Tree and a student at Heronsgate School, was selected for the star role as her mother is a member of staff at Bletchley Park.

She said: “We got them from the gift shop.

“She said that baby George would love it as he loves his cuddly toys.”

The Duchess was then escorted away, bringing to an end a memorable day.

ONE of the city’s iconic landmarks that has been scheduled for demolition could stay standing for many months to come.

Outline planning permission was granted in March to demolish The Point – which opened in 1985 as the first multiplex cinema in the UK. But nearly four months later owners Hammerson, which will build a new retail, restaurant and leisure centre in its place, still have a number of barriers to overcome before work can start. And the building looks unlikely to be knocked down any time soon, as charities are still moving in.

Gary Payne is the founder of the Young People Are Our Future Charity, which moved into The Point this week.

Gary, whose charity has so far helped 11,000 kids with educational and skills workshops, said: “We’re very grateful to The Point for giving us somewhere. We’ve heard that we could be here from a few weeks to up to 18 months, it’s how long is a piece of string. We don’t mind because the charity is quite flexible. We’re just glad to have somewhere.”

Hammerson has inserted a clause that means it can give tenants a month’s notice to move out of The Point.

But the scheme is still waiting for formal planning approval, after which work will need to begin on a reserved matters application – evaluating access, appearance, landscaping, layout and scale – before a timescale can even be agreed to demolish it.

The Point still stands

MORE commuters will be able to travel on Virgin trains going to and from London after the company had its franchise extended.

As part of the three-year deal, coach G on all 21 nine-coach Pendolinos will be converted from first class to standard by September 2015, which will free up an extra 5,500 seats a day.

Passengers will also benefit from superfast WiFi, which will be installed on all trains.

Patrick McCall, Virgin Trains’ executive co-chairman, said: “This deal is great news for passengers and taxpayers.

“We know WiFi is high on our customers’ priorities and we’re delighted that we’re going to be able to offer them free and superfast WiFi.”

Milton Keynes Central could also see another six return services a day to London by 2016 as a new operator was given the green light to introduce a daily London to Blackpool service.

Great North Western Rail (GNWR) has been granted permission to use open access rules to introduce the new service, adding more trains for Milton Keynes passengers and greater competition on the West Coast Mainline.

Patrick said: “This sounds like more good news for Milton Keynes with extra services to London and the north on the cards.”

Chuffed: Andrew Pakes has welcomed more train services for MK.
A WOMAN is calling on the Fishermead estate to help find a parakeet that has been missing for months.

Peppa the Indian ring-neck parakeet went missing from Grange Park, Northampton, in September last year. The tropical bird, which has a ring on one of its legs as an identification tag, arrived in Fishermead a month later.

Peppa was a regular sighting among locals for some time, but now Sarah Wheeler, the aunt of the three-year-old boy who owns her, is concerned sightings have stopped.

She said: “She hasn’t been seen at all in Fishermead since March. Up until then she was seen every day and several times a day, in Helford Place and Vellan Avenue mainly. We suspect someone has her.

“My nephew is heartbroken beyond belief. “Peppa was his first pet and I myself have owned parrots for more than 30 years. “She does still respond to her name we believe, so if anyone knows anything, even anonymous, I would urge them to please get in touch with me.”

The breed of parakeet is popular as a pet and usually measures 40cm in length, including tail feathers. They are also expensive, fetching up to £400 for each bird, and are popular with those who want to breed them.

If you’ve seen Peppa, or have any information about her, get in touch with Sarah on 07527 691675.

Try the Montessori method

BY SCOTT KIRK

A NEW Montessori preschool will be arriving in a town later this year.

The Milton Keynes Montessori Preschool will open in the Swinfen Harris Hall in London Road, Stony Stratford, in September.

Developed by Italian educator and physician Maria Montessori in 1897, this type of learning is different in that the focus is largely on what the children want to do with an emphasis on independence, rather than prescribed lessons from teachers.

For example, if a child is enjoying reading, they will be allowed to continue, even if a lesson in something different is being held.

“It’s a much calmer environment for children to learn in and everything is child-led,” said Catherine Barker, one of the directors.

“The children learn at their own pace and it’s really relaxed for them.”

Another of the directors,

Funmi Rotimi-Ajibola, added: “If a child is learning, working and engaging in an activity then we will respect that and it’s an atmosphere of freedom which we will have at the school.”

There will be morning and afternoon sessions held at the preschool, with 16 places available at each.

Catherine and Funmi will be running and teaching at the preschool alongside fellow director Fern Bunton.

They are looking for an extra teacher to make up the four-strong staff.

An open day for parents interested in learning more will take place at the preschool on Saturday, July 5 from 10am to 1pm.

For more information call 07469 849067.

E xtraordinary results

Another new school will be welcomed in Stony Stratford.

Milton Keynes Montessori Preschool will open in the Swinfen Harris Hall in September.

The school will accommodate 320 pupils aged three to five.

The head of the school, Jack Freshwater, said: “We decided to start from scratch with a new school to give the children the best possible environment to learn in.”

Jack’s food is now delivered by an electric bike, which was purchased after outstanding results in a recent survey of parents.

“Parents have been telling us how impressed they are with the meals served at the preschool,” said Jack.

Children are also learning independence, with some of the children now able to open their own cars.

Ernest has teddy bear competition zipped up

DOWNs Barn Primary School is celebrating winning a Design Your Teddy’s Outfit competition.

Run by Milton Keynes’ first specialist clothing alterations and tailoring centre, the ZipYard at Midsummer Place, the natty eye-catching multi-coloured design by six-year-old Ernest Rai was selected from hundreds of entries received from local primary schools.

Ernest was presented with his teddy’s winning outfit yesterday, made from scratch by the ZipYard’s in-house professional seamstresses.

Eimear Fitzgerald, director of ZipYard Milton Keynes, said: “We thought the competition would be a really fun way to encourage young children to get creative and introduce them to the skilful trade of clothes alteration and tailoring.”

“All the entries we received were fantastic, but Ernest’s really caught our eye.”

Pedalling meals on eco bike

AN ELECTRIC bike is being used to pedal out quality dinners from one school to another.

Last year MK NEWS reported how Greensleys Junior School had seen a drastic improvement in the behaviour of its pupils since employing head chef Jack Freshwater and serving hot meals.

Now Jack’s dishes are being wheeled out to nearby Greensleys First School on the bike, which comes with a hot food carrier, by site manager Dougie Read.

Jacqueline McManus, the school’s business manager, said: “When we made the decision to outsource the meals to the first school, we considered transport and naturally thought of a van.

“But we wanted something a bit more eco-friendly with no running costs. It fitted the bill.”

“From September we will be employing someone to do the run.”

There are currently 160 students eating the meals at both schools and that is expected to increase to 320 next year.

FOLLOWING its sell-out season in London's West End, the critically acclaimed musical Singin' In The Rain will arrive at Milton Keynes Theatre on Tuesday.

Singin' In The Rain will star stage and screen leading man Maxwell Caulfield as studio boss R E Simpson, Coronation Street favourite Vicky Binns as starlet Lina Lamont, James Leece as Don Lockwood, Amy Ellen Richardson as Kathy Selden and Stephanie Ansell as Cosmo Brown. Vicky, who played Molly Dobbs (Tyrone's wife) in Coronation Street, said: “To be in a musical of this scale and quality is a dream job for me... I was blown away when I saw this production in London, so it's a thrill to bring it straight from the West End to Milton Keynes.”

Don is a silent movie star with everything he could want – fame, adulation and a well-publicised ‘romance’ with his co-star Lina. But Hollywood is about to change forever. There is rumour in the studio of a new kind of film, where the actors actually talk... and sing... and dance.

Can Don and the uniquely voiced Lina make the transition and will chorus girl Kathy fulfil her dream of stardom and capture Don's heart along the way?

This production of Singin' In The Rain opened at the Chichester Festival Theatre in summer 2011 and was extended due to unprecedented public demand.

The show will be performed in Milton Keynes until July 12 and tickets, costing from £15 to £47.50, are available from the box office on 0844 871 7652, or www.atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes

BRADWELL Abbey will provide the backdrop for one of Milton Keynes’ premier live music events this weekend.

Togfest 2014 will follow the same format as last year’s event, with two stages and 11 hours of non-stop live music of all genres. This year’s line-up includes rock bands, folk artists, jazz musicians and more from as far away as Australia to get you dancing the day and night away. Names include Togmor, who will appeal to fans of Celtic and contemporary folk rock, the eclectic Hoopy Froud and Jazz Morley, pictured, who is known for her jazz music, haunting vocals and storming live presence.

Tickets for the event, taking place on Saturday from 11am, cost £15 per adult and £2 for children under the age of 12. To buy tickets visit www.togfest.org or pay on the day.

THE Fault in Our Stars is a movie where the weepy among you should probably have a box of tissues on standby.

This new flick, which has been almost universally praised by critics, is based on the 2012 novel of the same name by John Green. Staying incredibly true to the book, the film focuses on teenagers Hazel (Shailene Woodley) and Gus (Ansel Elgort). The duo meet at a cancer support group, where Hazel, who carries an oxygen tank, catches the eye of Gus, who has a prothetic leg after an amputation. The couple’s relationship builds on laughter, but also deep conversation as they come to terms with what they are suffering.

This ‘never too late’ romance whiskins them around the world and by and large is a very good film that is certainly well acted. There are a couple of awkward moments. For example, no set of strangers in the world will ever cheer the sight of two people they have no connection with kissing in the Anne Frank house. But the leads are likeable and the story is a heartfell one dealt with intelligently. Worth a watch.

James Averill
WHO could ever forget Wild Thing?
The Troggs have always been remembered for this 1960s anthem but it is just one of their many UK hits, which include With A Girl Like You, I Can’t Control Myself, Anyway That You Want Me, Give It To Me, Love Is All Around and Night of the Long Grass.
They all followed in rapid succession to give The Troggs worldwide acclaim.
Dubbed by many as the first British punk band, they have continued playing their own uncompromising style of good, basic rock music and now it’s on your doorstep.
The Troggs are playing at The Stables in Wavendon on Friday. Tickets for the 8pm show cost £17.50 and can be bought from www.stables.org or the box office on 01908 260800.

World Cup

FOR football fans this time of year is absolute heaven and I’m no exception to that, writes Scott Kirk.
There have been a fair share of surprises in this World Cup already, with Spain being knocked out in the group stages and Uruguay losing to Costa Rica, so I can’t wait to see what others are lurking.
We’re about to reach the knock-out stages of the competition and this is the time when you start sitting up and paying attention to the tournament.
You can’t beat sitting on the sofa with a beer and watching the best players in the world slug it out to see who will come out on top.
This World Cup has been great in terms of the kick-off times. It has meant that most of us have been able to watch games when we finish work, rather than missing matches and trying to sneakily find out the scores while at work!
Even though England have been knocked out already, I still love filling in my World Cup wall chart every day with the results.

ATHLETICS

BROTHERS Freddie, 19, and Redford Curtis, 17, put on an excellent performance at the England U23 Athletics Championships in Bedford, taking gold and silver medals for javelin. The pair, members of Marshall Milton Keynes Athletics Club, threw for 64.18m and 59.07m respectively.

Redford’s throw saw a new personal best for the teenager, while Edward Wilson, 18, who is also a member of Milton Keynes Athletics, recorded a best of 52.08m coming in eighth place in the same competition.

RUGBY LEAGUE

MK WOLVES were beaten 52-32 by Bedford Tigers in the final four of the Eastern Rugby League Challenge Cup last Saturday. Tigers ran in six tries through a Kai Muriel hat-trick, Jason Yip and an Ollie Fountain brace, but they could not keep out a rampant Bedford side who hit ten scores to advance to face North Herts Crusaders in the final.

FOOTBALL

A HOLYOAKS team from the award-winning soap will play Winstow United this Saturday. Ayden Callaghan, who plays Joe Roscoe in the programme and was a United footballer until he was 20, has helped organise the game. Stars including Joe Tracini (Dennis), Charlie Clapham (Freddie) and former show actor John Omole (Vincent) will play in the game alongside former footballer Lee Trundle.

Injury forces game to end

MK KNIGHTS experienced a week of contrasting fortunes. They beat Kings Lynn last Wednesday, in a match cut short by injuries before losing away at Long Eaton on Saturday to an Invaders team that had finally hit form.

Knights ran out close 11-12 winners in a meeting brought to a halt by a serious crash in Heat Four which saw both MK riders Rik Mullins and Connor Mountain injured, with the latter taken to hospital for further checks. He could miss this week’s action after suffering considerable tissue damage.

The meeting against Long Eaton passed without serious incident but saw the MK Knights lose 21-15.

The results see the Knights retain their position at the top of the Midland Development League table as Sunday sees a return to home track action for the visit of Belle Vue.

FOOTBALL

UNION Captain Leanne Fyfe, manager of Southside United Under-16s football team, won the overall Youth Manager of the Season award at the Milton Keynes and Border Counties Youth Football League AGM.

This trophy will sit alongside the U16s Manager of the Season award he has also won.

ROLLER DERBY

MILTON Keynes Roller Derby’s men’s team, The Guards of War beat Belfast men’s team, The Boondocks 139-43, in the first ever public men’s roller derby match in Ireland.

The women’s B team, The Udder Team are next to compete for MK facing off against Birmingham Blitz Dames’ B team, The Bomb Squad on Saturday July 5 in Birmingham.

SHOOTING

ELEVEN Times represented City of Milton Keynes Swimming Club at the South East region age group championship in Crawley.

Two gold medals were achieved by younger members of CMKSC in the first round of the Junior League Division One at Leighton Buzzard pool.

HAYDEN Mullins’ 128 was not enough for Stony Stratford as they lost by just one wicket to Rushden Town.

Vicram Sohal’s four-wicket haul and three from Graham Simpson didn’t give Stony the wickets they needed as Rushden reached their target of 245.

CERWELL Cricket League

GREAT Brickhill defeated Twyford by six wickets in Division One to claim 25 points, while 65 from Shahzad and Malik’s 61 helped Wolverton Town to 307-7 in their first innings, but they could only(outfile (7 474 645 824) image)

In Division Three Bletchley Town lost to

Buckingham Town 2nds by 72 runs.

Four Counties League

NORTH Crawley were denied victory after a stubborn Olney Town refused to buckle.

Alex Walker struck 19 fours and two sixes, and Airport Town also picked up 112-6 in response, but it was enough to draw.

New City dispatched Eggington Foresters by eight wickets after they got their opponents out for 113.

John Iqbal’s 106 was all Milton Keynes City needed for victory.

City picked up 267 in the first innings, and Mohammed Shahid continued his remarkable form with figures of 3-1 to dismiss Biddenham for 116.

MK DONS manager Karl Robinson accepts that his team still needs strikers despite one new name signing on the dotted line this week.

Dons completed the signing of centre back Kyle McFadzean from Crawley Town for an undisclosed fee this week - a move which reunites him with former manager and now Dons assistant Richie Barker - but the challenge now for Robinson is to look for more offensive options.

“We’re still looking to add to other areas of the team, especially strikers,” Robinson told mkdons.com.

“Kyle is a player who I’ve watched when Crawley Town beat Dons 2-0 at stadiummk in April. He’s a big challenge but one I’m looking forward to. I just can’t wait to put the shirt on and kick a ball about in this wonderful ground.”

Robinson believes that with two very important fixtures thrown his side’s way so early in the campaign, pre-season has become even more important for his charges.

Following the opening game of the season at home to Gillingham on Saturday, August 9, Dons will face a tricky home tie against AFC Wimbledon on Tuesday, August 12 in the Capital One Cup, before a trip to bitter rivals Peterborough United four days later.

“Pre-season becomes absolutely massive for us and we’ll be aiming to hit the ground running,” Robinson told mkdons.com.

“We must improve at home after being diabolical at times towards the end of last season. It goes without saying that we will be looking to start the season far better than we finished the last one, but we’ll have players back from injury – Darren Potter, Ben Reeves, Lee Hodson, Dean Bowditch – plus new additions.”

He concluded: “It’s a new season and we want to go into it fitter than ever before. We need players and we know that, but we are working very hard to bring new faces in.”

Meanwhile, Dons will travel to Dagworth & Redbridge on Tuesday, July 22 for a pre-season friendly, with kick off at 7:45pm.

The match will see Dagworth mid-fielder Luke Howell face the Dons for the first time since leaving the club in 2011 and Danny Green returns to the side where he made close to 100 appearances between 2009 and 2011.

Summer signings: Kyle McFadzean leaves Mark Randall on his backside when Crawley Town beat Dons 2-0 at stadiummk in April

BY SCOTT KIRK

Defence is covered and now strikers are the key

NETMINDING partnership Stephen Wall and Jordan Hedley will return for MK Lightning next season.

The 2014-15 campaign will be Wall’s third consecutive year with the Lightning in a career which began with Whitley Warriors before he played for Peterborough Phantoms for seven years.

“I’m looking forward to getting into the new rink and soon afterwards there’ll be a ‘mini Wall’ when our baby arrives in October, so that will be fun,” said Wall.

“As soon as Nick [Poole] asked me to come back I accepted straight away. Milton Keynes is a great place to play and I’ve loved the last two seasons - despite all the travelling of last year.

“It should be an exciting season as some teams have new owners and others a new regime could be in place. Better training regime could be key for returning Wall and Hedley

MK DONS manager Karl Robinson believes his team still needs strikers despite one new name signing on the dotted line this week.
STOLEN

During the last few months we have stolen kitchen sales from National Kitchen Outlets and Superstores.

We admit to the offence, but plead mitigation. We did not know that our Quality Kitchens could be as competitive as less quality kitchens.

We know we look expensive, but with our low overheads, we can offer better prices than larger national companies, even with their supposed, 40%, 50% or 60% off promotions.

We look forward to designing and installing your new kitchen !!!!
